

Safety With the Police

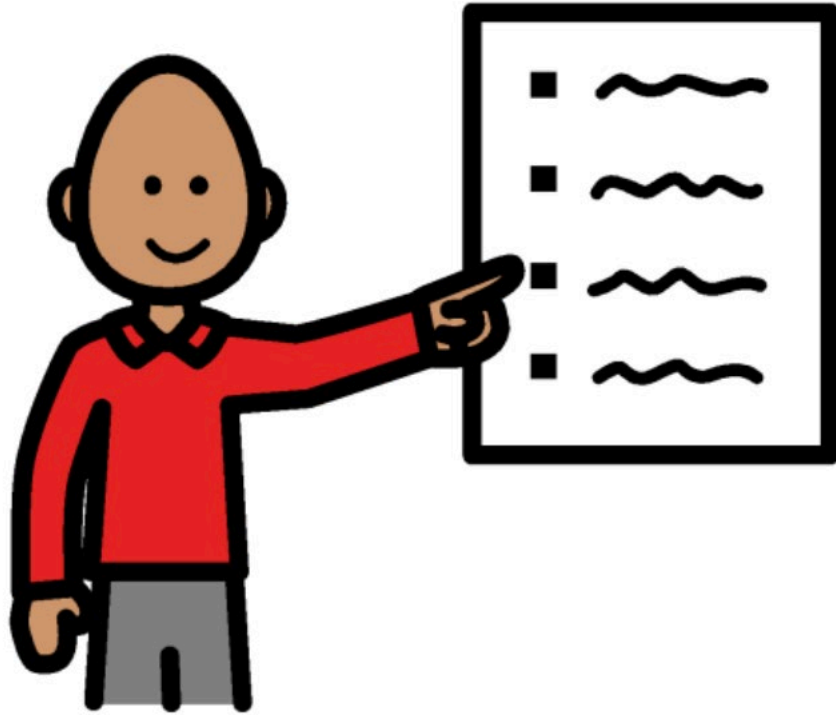

The police are here to help us.

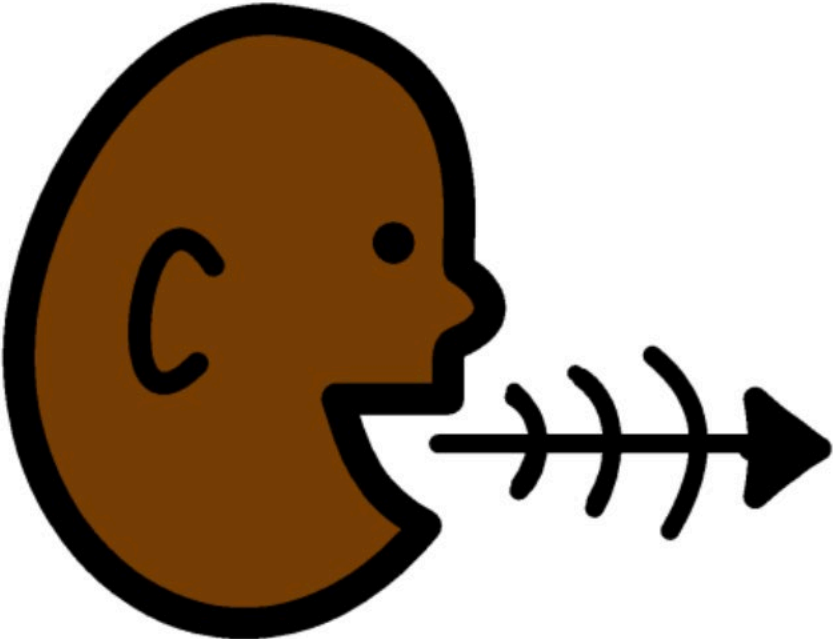

I need help

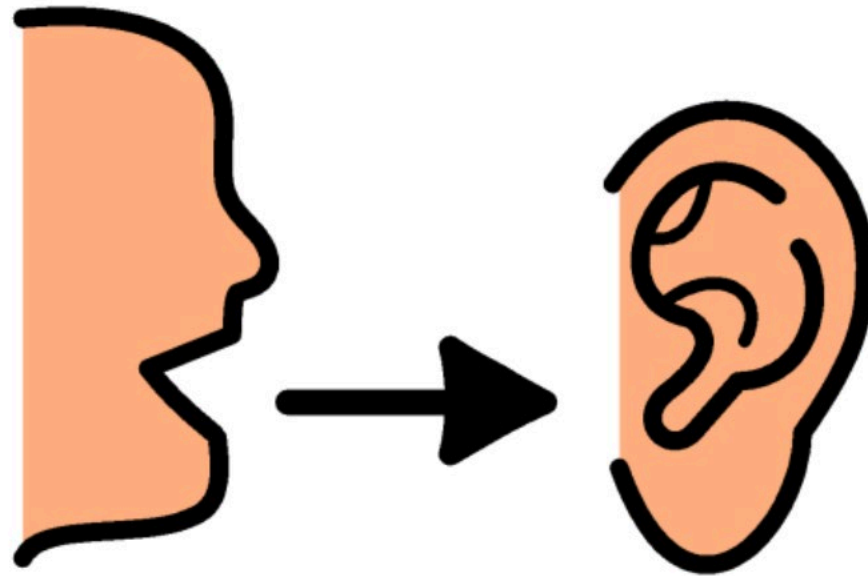

But, there are some rules that I must follow to stay safe.

My voice counts, who I am counts, I deserve to be safe.

Listen, if the police talk to me.

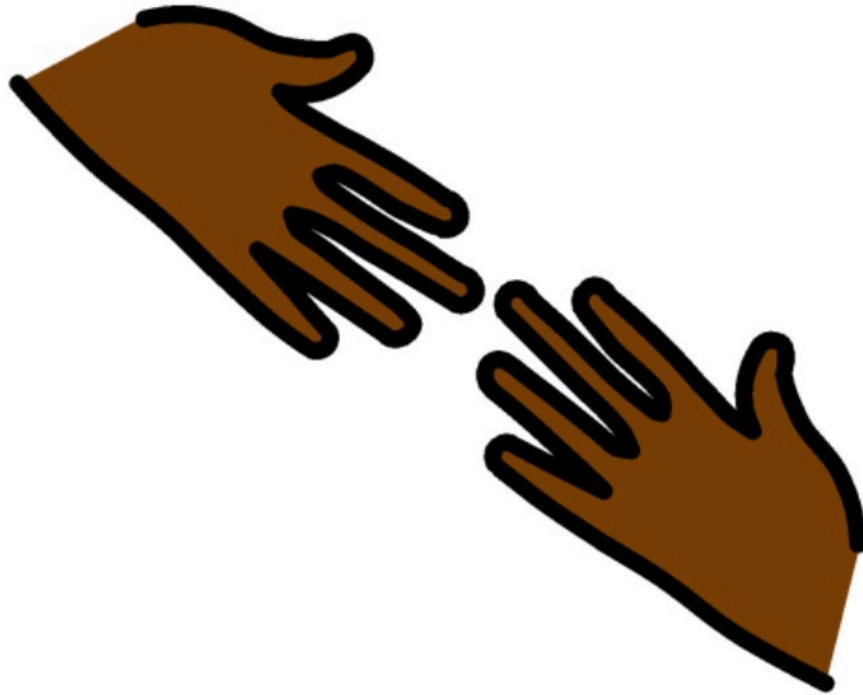

Stop, if the police ask me to.

I can tell them I am autistic.

I can say, “I need help” if I am not safe or am confused.

I need help

I can say, “I don’t know” if I don’t know the answer to a question.

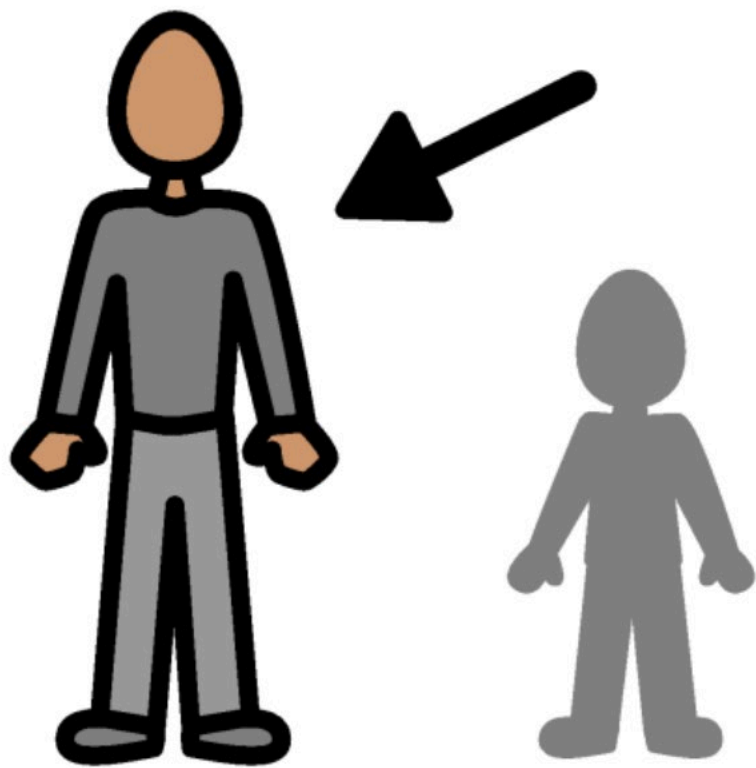

I can do my best to stay calm. I can take deep breaths.

I can tell the police my personal information – like my name, phone number, and address.

I can ask for a family member or advocate.

I will do what the police say.

I won't touch the police.

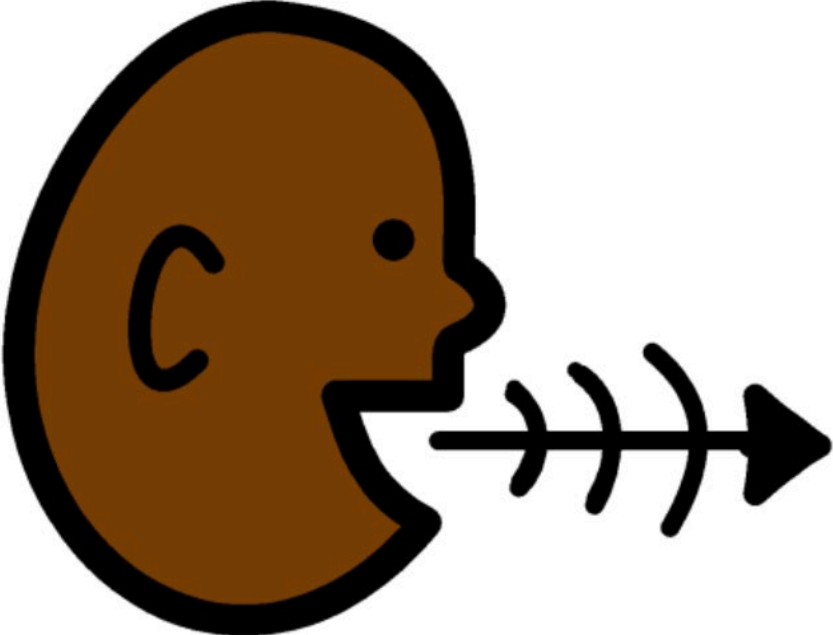

don't touch

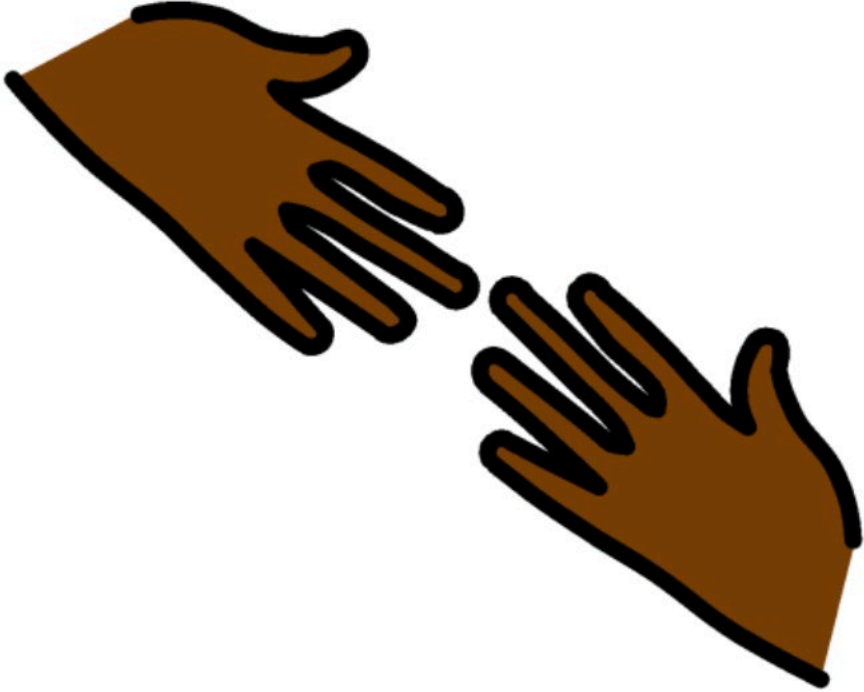

I won't run away.

My voice counts, who I am counts, I deserve to be safe.

The police are here to help us.

I need help

But I must follow these rules to stay safe.
